Course Descriptions

Special Obedience Class (4-week session)

Good Manners for the Holidays & Beyond — No Prerequisite. Also suitable for those who have taken STAR Puppy or Beginner Obedience and want to keep in practice! (Class size limited to 10.) Suitable for dogs six months and up. Younger dogs should attend STAR Puppy. Lay a foundation for (or practice and expand on) your basic obedience skills to get ready for Holiday happiness. Skills introduced will include sit, down, and wait, as well as polite greetings. Students also will practice door manners and maybe a trick or two. (NOTE: Dogs who have not previously attended a 7-week obedience class will be required to take the 7-week course in the New Year, before moving on to other classes.)

Tricks Class (4-week session)

Trainer's Choice Tricks — Prerequisite: STAR Puppy or Beginning Obedience. Tricks class preferred. (Class size limited to 10.) Suitable for dogs 6 months and up. Tricks are fun. Ready to take your trick training to another level? Have a more complicated trick that you have been working on? Get help troubleshooting and with ideas. As always, emphasis is on having fun with your dog!

Regular Agility Classes (4-week session)

Beginning Agility — Prerequisite: Fundamentals of Agility II & Instructor Permission. Dog should be at least age 15 months. (Class size limited to 6.) Dogs will be tested at first class and should have competence on agility equipment at lowered heights. Skills emphasized include competency progressing to full-sized equipment, developing handling skills including crosses, drills, and simple sequences.

Novice Agility — Prerequisite: Advanced-Beginner Agility & Instructor Permission. (Class size limited to 12.)

Focusing on introductory competition handling at the Novice level of course design. Dogs should be able to do all obstacles at full height.

Open Agility — Prerequisite: Novice Agility Title & Instructor Permission. (Class size limited to 10.) Dogs should be competent at six (6) regular weaves and working to master 12 weaves. Must be actively competing. Class difficulty will be at Open level.

Check prerequisites & acquire instructor permission, where necessary, before signing up.

Advanced Competition Agility — Prerequisite: Agility Title & Instructor Permission. (Class size limited to 10.)

Focus on today's challenging Excellent/Masters and Premier competition.

Special Agility Classes (4-week session)

Fun & Games Agility — Prerequisite: Ability to handle full size equipment & completion of Fundamentals of Agility II & Instructor Permission. (Class size limited to 10.)

Students must have off-leash control of their dog in order to be eligible for this class. Energize your dog and enrich your teamwork with this fun-focused games class. Try your hand at agility games — Fullhouse, Jackpot, Snooker, and Tunnelers — new game introduced each week.

Whether you are experienced competitors or just getting started, games build confidence, rekindle drive, and inject enthusiasm.

FOCUS: Weaves & Contacts — Prerequisite: Fundamentals of Agility I (Class size limited to 10.)

Students must have off-leash control of dog to be eligible for class. Dogs less than 1 year old will be limited to developmentally appropriate levels/activity. Introduction to weave poles and the two-by-two method. For teams already started on weave poles, class will focus on increasing independence. Establishment, practice, and proofing of consistent contact behaviors also will be introduced.

FOCUS: Special Topics in Agility — Prerequisite: Advanced Beginning Agility (Class size limited to 10.) Each week will focus on a special "problem" — serpentine, contacts, and other favorite challenges.
